

Travel Fee includes on-campus accommodations, meals, and activities as outlined.

the UNE program. If not planning pre-program travels, students should depart the U.S. on January 2nd to arrive in (TNG) via Madrid.

Arrive in Tangier where you will be met at the airport by Tangier Campus staff. Check-in, freshen up, campus tour. Lunch on campus. Walking tour of the neighborhood and cultural orientation. Mint tea demonstration. Dinner on campus.

Breakfast. Tour of Tangier's medina. Lunch on campus. Site visits with local organizations and/or cultural activities. Dinner on campus. Optional Hammam visits.

Breakfast on campus. Site visits with local organizations and/or cultural activities. Dinner on campus.

Breakfast. Occupational Therapy conference, including lunch. Group dinner. Return to campus.

Visit Cap Spartel and the Caves of Hercules and experience riding a camel. Continue to Asilah, a laid-back town on the Atlantic coast. Walking tour and time to enjoy murals and other local art. Dinner on campus.

Breakfast on campus. Site visits with local organizations and/or cultural activities. Visit Tetouan, a historical city near the Mediterranean. Time to relax on a beach. Back in Tangier, learn to make a Moroccan meal and enjoy dinner at a cooking class.

Breakfast on campus. Artisan visits, Henna and free time. Farewell dinner. Packing and goodbyes.

Breakfast. Transfer to airport and return to United States or continue travels on your own in Morocco or Europe.

 Please note that itinerary is subject to change.*